

Area 8 Secretary Report 25th February 2011

Hello Gents.

Christmas has gone and Santa is taking a well earned break from dropping down chimney's, using magic keys and riding on the back of Tabler's sleighs. The nation was covered in a cold white blanket of snow for a while, but no - just like we did in the summer, us Tabler's still never stopped doing what we like to do best.....having a good time.

Reports of, to name but a few; Big red bus rides, Rally fancy dress parties, 10k races, Charter comedians & footballers and lots of beer drinking, have been bantering about Area 8 and it's a credit to you all that the majority of the events that have been held at an individual Table level have been joined by Tabler's from other Table's in Area 8.

It's working Gent's, if you want to organise an event but feel that it won't be possible due to the membership numbers in your Table then let the Area 8 Executive know and we'll publish it to all the other Table's in Area 8, you never know....you may even double your numbers for the event.

Yours in Table,

Carl Davies.
